

Educate Others - What is World AIDS Day all about?

- Working together to fight discrimination.
- Organising effective activities within your community.
- Responding to needs of those living with HIV/AIDS.
- Listening to each other's thoughts and feelings about HIV/AIDS issues.
- Delivering messages of compassion and hope to those affected by HIV/AIDS.

- Assertively promoting HIV and AIDS awareness and education.
- Implementing HIV and AIDS prevention programmes in our communities.
- Drawing on parents and teachers to promote safer sex.
- Strengthening the worldwide effort to stop the spread of HIV and AIDS.

- Disseminating helpful information.
- Actively protecting the human rights of those living with HIV and AIDS.
- You - making a difference and increasing AIDS awareness.

Other ways to make a difference

Tell your friends and family about the World AIDS Day site.

By spreading the word, you'll make a difference and help increase the number of people visiting the World AIDS Day site. Word of mouth can often be the best way to let people know about HIV/AIDS.

If you have your own web site why not put a banner or link to World AIDS Day.

If you are taking part or planning an event for World AIDS Day, tell your potential sponsors about the World AIDS Day Web site.

Copyright © 2000 National AIDS Trust
Design & Technology by Reading Room Ltd

If you want to know more about the 2002 campaign please go to:

<http://www.nat.org.uk/natuk/index.html>