

Going shopping in London – Buying a pair of trainers

John and Fiona are out shopping on Oxford Street. John spots a pair of trainers that he likes but they are the wrong colour.

Before you read the exercise listen to the dialogue.

Underline the line that fits.

John: Excuse me.

Assistant:

- (A) OK, do you want to come to the cash desk?
- (B) Hi, can I help you?
- (C) Here they are. How do they feel?
- (D) Wait a second, I'll just check. What size?

John: Yeah, please. I like these trainers, but have you got them in blue?

Assistant:

- (E) OK, do you want to come to the cash desk?
- (F) Hi, can I help you?
- (G) Here they are. How do they feel?
- (H) Wait a second, I'll just check. What size?

John: Well in Canada I take a 9, so I think that's a 40 here.

Assistant:

- (J) OK, do you want to come to the cash desk?
- (K) Hi, can I help you?
- (L) Here they are. How do they feel?
- (M) Wait a second, I'll just check. What size?

John: They feel fine. I think I'll take them.

Assistant:

- (N) OK, do you want to come to the cash desk?
- (O) Hi, can I help you?
- (P) Here they are. How do they feel?
- (Q) Wait a second, I'll just check. What size?

The Key and the complete dialogue are on page 3

Answer / Key: B – H – L – N

John: Excuse me.

Assistant: Hi, can I help you?

John: Yeah, please. I like these trainers, but have you got them in blue?

Assistant: Wait a second, I'll just check. What size?

John: Well in Canada I take a 9, so I think that's a 40 here.

Assistant: Here they are. How do they feel?

John: They feel fine. I think I'll take them.

Assistant: OK, do you want to come to the cash desk?