The-Argument

Lucius Tarquinius, for his excessive pride surnamed Superbus, after he had caused his own father-in-law Servius Tullius to be cruelly murdered, and, contrary to the Roman laws and customs, not requiring or staying for the people's suffrages, had possessed himself of the kingdom, went, accompanied with his sons and other noblemen of Rome, to besage Ardea. During which siege the principal men of the army meeting one evening at the tent of 20 Sextus Tarquinius, the king's son, in their discourses after supper every one commended the virtues of his own wife:

other with Publius Valerius, 40 and finding Lucrece attired in mourning habit, demanded the cause of her sorrow. She, first taking an oath of them for her revenge, revealed the actor, and whole manner of his dealing, and withal suddenly stabbed herself. Which done, with one consent they all vowed to root out the whole hated family of the 45 Tarquins, and bearing the dead body to Rome.
