To what extent might Adam's transformation be motivated by needs (Maslow's pyramid)?

- just wants to fulfill his love needs and so he does what Evelyn wants
- he wants to fulfill his love needs
- after he saw Evelyn he recognized that he has love needs
- Esteem needs: wants respect from others → new hairstyle, new clothes
- maybe also physiological needs: SEX
- needs Evelyn as a friend
→ belonging → only has 2 other friends

- <sup>opinions</sup> Follows Evelyn's needs
- Safety needs: has work → earns money, is healthy
- biological needs: breathing, has enough water, sleep...
- self-actualisation, because he first needs to fulfill his belonging and love needs
